FIRED THE HERALD MAN

AND DECIDED TO RESIST THE KAYSVILLE TYRANTS.

Efforts of Kaysville City to Collect Licenses Caused the Eruption-Lav-Men Pledge Funds to Carry On the Fight-Kaysville Men Ex-cluded From the Hall.

Kaysville, March 31.-The spirit of ntense antagonism to Kaysville and its people, which seems to burn in the hearts of many of the people of Lay-ton, was fanned into a flame of indignation today at a meeting called to protest against Kayaville City attempt-protest against Kaysville City attempting to collect licenses from the business to collect licenses from the business houses of Layton.

The call that brought the meeting together was issued, it is supposed, by Ephraim P. Ellisen, who leads the opposition. It is a warm document, and refers to the "raids, arrests and unlawful demands of the officials of Kaysville City." It declares the object of the meeting to be "to adopt such measures as will be for the best mutual protection of all persons and their property who live outside of Kaysville City, as defined by the supremeour. The call, which was possed conspicuously, contains the sentence, "All are most carnestly invited," heavily underscend to give it prominence. This sentence is significant in view of what followed.

The Herald curvespondent was present at the public hall when the time for the meeting arrived prepared to report what happened, relying upon the public call to sive him admittance. But he was unfortunate in being a resident of Kaysville. When the meeting same to order, Jusse M. Smith, the chairman, read the end, judiciously unfailing the sentence, "All are most carnestly invited," and then he "invited" certain ones to leave.

After the "Briag." Chairman Smith took the floor. He culled attention to the necessity for "action." procests' and "defensive steps." He related how the city had been cut down by the supreme court to the lots and blocks, which was news to his audience. Then the plan of action was unfolded. It was simply the getting together of funds to help the speaker fight his lattices. Two corporations with which he was associated had alvesdy agreed to contribute to the fund, he said, though one of them the Layton Milling & Fleyator commany, was unfor though one of them, the Layton Milling & Elevator company, was unfortunate in having two Kayaville men as directors, which fact produced two dissenting votes when the appropriation was made. All this and more floated out of the windows, and then a committee on resolutions was appointed, consisting of Rufus Adams, Henry Ellis and Alex Dawson, who went down to the Farmer's Union store to get their resolutions. There was warmth in them, too, indicating that their birtiplace was near Mr. Elsen's hor-air furnace. They simply flayed alive the Kayaville city council and said many things that will not be published. E. P. Ellison, W. C. Smith and Jame

E. P. Ellisen, W. C. Smith and James H. Badden were appointed a committee on agreement, and they agreed. Several others afterward signed the agreement they formulated, and pledged their property to the defense of any smit Kaysville City might bring. They were to bear the expense on a pre rata plan, according to the valuation of their property as shown by the assessment rolls of Davis county for 1857. This was the only important busi-ess transacted.

Important Suit Now On Trial at Ogden-Notes.

Brigham City, March IL-Mayor Erdmann. Councilmen J. P. Merrill, Henry Kotter and L. P. Johnson, with Atter-ney B. H. Jones, went to Ogden this morning to be in attendance at the fed-eral court in the trial of the case of the Toltee Ranch company vs. the city. This is the case where the ranch com-pany claims title to the land on which the city water reservoir is situated, and demands that the city pay them $5.6m for it, and the reservoir. The case will be closely walched by our citings, as it is of vital interest to the city's futire.

case will be closely watched by our citizens, as it is of vital interest to the city's future.

Frank Eart, A. A. Janson, C. W. Knidson and N. P. Anderson are among the number who went down to testify in the case. The city, it is understood, will claim that the value of the reservoir and ground is less than $2,000, and therefore the federal court has no jurisdation. They also depy all other allegations of the complaint; claiming both title and possession.

A suit was today filed in the district court by the Bear River Canal company against George Elliot, for payment of money due on contract, also a "lis pendis" was filed in the recorder's office as against that piece of land.

Banh Ann Riggs of Portage, was in to make final proof on homestead entry. Hyrum Ashton and John Heaton, of the same place, appeared as witnesses.

Provo. March 31.-The city counc met in special semion last evening and considered the application of Mrs. Provo, March at the city council met in special semion last evening and considered the application of Mrs. Amanda Knight, arking that the city sell her a tract of land in the vicinity of the tract lately dedicated by Mrs. Knight to the people of the First and Fourth wards. The property owned by the city is much mere suitably located than that given by Mrs. Knight to the two wards. For this reason the generous lady seeks to purchase the city preperty and transfer it to the people of the two wards in fish of the tract heretofore intended to be conveyed. The council appointed a committee to look over the lands and report upon the advisability of making the sale, and the terms upon which it should be made. The committee will likely report at the regular meeting of the council on Monday night.

Richfield, March 31.—For several evecks considerable feeling has been manifested, both in the city council and on the streets, over the proposition of uniting with Sevier county in billion a jail. This was brought to a head last night in a mass meeting called for the purpose of capsidering the county's offer.

Mayor Bundley presided and Heber Christensen acted as secretary.

E. W. McDandel, in behalf of the county, presented the matter in detail to the assembled citizens, in a logical and forceful speech. He was followed by W. H. Seegmiller, Mayor Bradley, Atterney Collins, William Ogden and ofters, who favored co-operation. James M. Bolltho and Morton Jensen led the opposition, and spoke at length against building the jail on the county's lot. Judge McCarthy put some questions to the meeting that completely floored the opposing genitemen, and from the applause it was manifest that co-operation would be the result. Hon, W. H. Seegmiller and James M. Bolltho had a lively tilt, in which the latter was accused of talking to the galleries. After discussing the proposition for over two hours, a resolution ounite with the county was passed by a vote of $3 to 15.

Cheyenne, Wyo.,... March 22.—Tom Andrews, who has been hunting and trapping during the past winter in the Teton mountains, has from Oct 1, 1897, to March 1, 1898, polsoned, trapped or shot 217 big gray and 39 black timber wolves, or a total of 306. Mr. Andrews during the same period, slew 14 mountain linos, 11 bear, seven wolverines, 182 deer, his winter spoils of pelts, furs, etc., requiring a string of 18 burros to transport them to the railroad. Mr. Andrews, owing to a method of canturing wolves original with himself and unique in character, has carned the mountain sobriquet of 'Snow Pit' Tom. Selecting a locality where the mountain snows are deeply drifted and covered with frozen crust, the hunter sinks well-like pits in the snow, sureads over them a thin layer of brush and snow, and then drass between and satisfactory. The revenous wolves following fast and faster upon the blood scent, crash through the light at the opening of the pit until a bullet from the hunter's ritle puts an end to their hopeless visit.
